

The below instructions will assist you to download the “Perma Select Software” program.

1. From the HTL Perma Australia website www.perma.com.au, select the download tab.
2. Locate the Perma Select Software heading and select version 3.40 to download by double clicking on the link.
3. Save the folder to the destination of your choice. You may want to take a note of the folder destination and folder name you have you chosen. Click Close button once folder saved.
4. After the folder has been saved, go to the saved folder and unzip folder.
5. Do this by right clicking on the directory folder and select “extract all”.
6. Click next button.
7. Check the save folder destination is where you want it to be saved, otherwise click to “browse” button to change folder save destination. Click Finish button when folder unzipped.
8. Go to the saved unzipped folder destination and double click on the folder.
9. Double click the executable file named “INSTALL”
10. Select “Run”
11. Agree to the terms of the Perma Select Software by clicking “Yes”
12. Select save destination for the Perma Select Software, the default directory of c:\perma will be displayed, if OK proceed to step 13.
13. Click the “Install” button. Once Run click OK button and close Perma Select window.
14. The software should now be loaded in the folder directory called “perma” on your C: drive as per step 12 or the alternative name you may have given the folder.
15. To run the program, launch from the “perma” folder by choosing the “SELECT” file, or launch from the “perma SELECT” icon on your desktop.